

CREDIT CARD AUTHORIZATION FORM FOR ALTERNATE SHIP TO ADDRESS

Credit card companies REQUIRE mail-order businesses to ship orders to the BILLING ADDRESS that is associated with the card, the address that is printed on your credit card statement. When businesses such as Strictly Diesel allow our customers to select a different shipping address, we are sacrificing a level of fraud protection in order to provide you with better Customer Service. Unfortunately, this concession has led to increases in fraudulent charges.

In order to continue providing you with this valuable service, Strictly Diesel now REQUIRES completion of this Credit Card Authorization Form, including copies of the identification documents specified below. ALL Alternate Shipping Addresses will be researched by Strictly Diesel to ensure that they are valid. Strictly Diesel will NOT ship orders to any "Freight Forwarding" companies, and reserves the right to decline shipment to any other "suspicious" addresses. Strictly Diesel also reserves the right to verify provided information with the Credit Card Issuing Bank if necessary.
